Jung Tao School of Classical Chinese Medicine
Campus Security Policy and Annual Report
2016

GENERAL POLICY

On November 8, 1990, the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act (Title II, Public Law 101-542) was signed into law. This law requires schools to produce and make available certain policy statements and statistics about campus crime.

PURPOSE

To establish policy and procedures for Jung Tao School, to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Crime Statistics Act, hereafter called the Clery Act, formerly known as the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990 (Title II, Public Law 101-542) with its amendments and the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) (Public Law 110-315).

The Jung Tao School policy is adopted to comply with Public Law 101-542, with its amendments, and that portion of Public Law 1I0-315 that pertains to the Higher Education Opportunity Act campus safety disclosure responsibilities.
It is the policy of the Jung Tao School to publish by October 1st of each school year an annual Campus Security Report that informs current students and employees of the security policies, procedures and practices described in this policy. The annual Campus Security Report will also disclose statistics concerning reported crimes listed under Definitions, section 2.01, below that occurred on-campus. The statistics will be collected from the Jung Tao School Administration, and from local law enforcement.
The Registrar is responsible for preparing and distributing the Annual Campus Security Report. The report is available by request from the Jung Tao School Administrative Office. The student body, staff and faculty are notified of the availability of the report by 1st October of each year. The report will be made available to prospective students, prospective employees, and others upon request paper copies of the report may be requested by contacting the Administrative Office at 825-297-4181, or by mail at:Jung Tao School of Classical Chinese Medicine, 207 Dale Adams Rd, Sugar Grove, NC 28679.

1. Overview.

4. POLICY FOR REPORTING CRIMINAL INCIDENTS OR EMERGENCIES

Jung Tao School takes allegations of sexual misconduct very seriously and will address all allegations of sexual misconduct with a prompt, thorough, and impartial inquiry to determine what occurred and to take appropriate steps to resolve the situation and determine an equitable resolution. JTS students or employees who believe they are targets of sexual misconduct in their academic or working environments are encouraged, when appropriate, to respond to the offender directly by objecting and by requesting that the unwelcome behavior stop. In more serious instances of sexual misconduct, such as sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking or when direct objections and requests have no effect, individuals are encouraged to seek immediate assistance from law enforcement or the designated JTS official.

4.01 The Registrar who is located in the Administration Office on the second floor of the building is the primary contact for reporting all campus emergencies and crimes. Additional assistance from the Watauga County Sheriff's department will be requested if needed.

4.02 Jung Tao School requires employees and encourages students and visitors to promptly report crimes that occur on campus to the Administrative Office.

4.03 Crimes and other police emergencies should be reported to the Registrar in the Administrative Office by calling 828-297-4181. Reports of crimes may be made to other Jung Tao School staff as listed below:

Registrar	828-297-4181
Academic Dean	828-297-4181
Clinic Director	828-297-4161
Clinic Manager	828-297-4161

4.04 Reports may also be made using the help@jungtao.edu email address.

4.05 Jung Tao School will promptly refer all reportable offenses to the Watauga County Sheriff's Department. All reports will be investigated and appropriate legal action will be taken.

4.06 The North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation and other law enforcement agencies may assist with investigations upon request.

5. ACCESS TO JUNG TAO SCHOOL BUILDING

The school building hours are as follows:

Monday	Closed
Tuesday	Closed
Wednesday-Sunday	9:00am-6:00pm

6. EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

6.01 To help prevent crimes or serious incidents, Jung Tao School staff will notify students by phone or email, in a timely manner about crimes that are considered by the police to represent a potentially serious or continuing threat to students and/or employees. Jung Tao School must issue a Crime Alert for all Clery Act reportable crimes listed in section 2.01 of this policy. For the purposes of this policy, "timely manner" generally means within a reasonable amount of time after Jung Tao School staff, and/or the Watauga County Sheriff's Department has gathered pertinent information. The information in the Crime Alert will include a general description of the incident and location, but will not to divulge information that could lead to the identity of the victim, and will provide safety tips appropriate to the incident.

6.02 Upon confirmation of an emergency situation in the building, from JTS Faculty, staff and/or student. Students will be directed to evacuate the building by way of the East stairwell, and if necessary the West stairwell.

6.03 When an intruder in a campus building is actively causing deadly harm or the threat of imminent deadly harm to people; you must immediately seek cover and contact 911if at all possible. If you are able to make a call, give as many details as possible relative to location, number of assailants, means of aggression and other pertinent information.

1. Do not sound the fire alarm to evacuate the building. People may be placed in harm's way when they are attempting to evacuate the building.
2. Be aware of alternate exits if it becomes necessary to flee.
3. Persons should lock themselves in classrooms and offices as a means of protection.
4. Persons should stay low, away from windows and barricade their door(s) if possible and use furniture or desks as cover.
5. If possible, cover any windows or openings that have a direct line of sight into the hallway.
6. Students and staff should not attempt to leave the building until told to do so by local law enforcement. The only exception to this is, given the specific circumstances, a person is certain beyond any doubt, that they are in more danger in staying in the building, than in attempting to escape.

7.JUNG TAO SCHOOLALCOHOLAND DRUG POLICY

7.01Jung Tao School prohibits the sale, possession, or consumption of alcohol on the school campus.

7.02 Jung Tao School prohibits the sale, possession, or consumption of illegal drugs on the school campus.

8. Security Awareness Programs

8.01 Jung Tao School engages in intergraded programming and campaigns that consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees. In addition,there are on-going awareness and prevention programming and campaigns for the existing student body and all employees.

8.02 Jung Tao School's programming focuses on identifying prohibitive conduct and expounds on the definitions of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking with high lights as to what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity. Bystander Intervention is addressed in definition and real time application to ensure safe and positive options. Also highlighted are Risk Reduction options designed to decrease perpetration and to promote safety.

8.03 Jung Tao School's educational campaigns include a seminar during new student and new employee orientation as well as distribution of educational materials.
Jung Tao is proactive in the following campaigns:

• Stalking Awareness Month
• Sexual Assault Awareness Month
• Alcohol Awareness Month
• National Campus Safety Awareness Month
• National Domestic Violence Month
• Crime Prevention Month

Appendix A

Jung Tao School is required to report crime statistics for the crimes defined in Section 2 of this report, from the date of the school's approval for Title IV. Jung Tao School's approval for Title IV was effective April 7, 2011.
Jung Tao School makes a good faith effort to collect crime statistics from local law enforcement, which is the Watauga County Sheriff's Department.

The Watauga County Sheriffs Department does not keep statistics for Sugar Grove or other specific areas of Watauga County, and directs inquiries to the North Carolina Department of Justice website, which provides crime statistics by county for the state of North Carolina.

At this time, there are no reported crimes for the Jung Tao School campus, known by either the Watauga County Sheriff's Department, CCP&D, or Jung Tao School staff for the 2013, 2014, 2015 or 2016 calendar year to date.
