

Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act

(CRRSAA) HEERF II Grant

On December 27th, 2020, the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) was signed into law. The Act provided an additional $21.2 billion for institutions of higher education (IHE) of which an allocation was used for a second Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) Grant.

Jung Tao School of Classical Chinese Medicine will receive $11,785 for these grants. Jung Tao School has established a separate checking account to manage funds and takes no administrative allowance.

The grants are to be awarded to students with exceptional need, specifically for any emergency that may be the result of coronavirus, directly or indirectly, including JTS school tuition and related costs of attendance, food, housing, basic utilities, health care or childcare. Jung Tao School is required to prioritize students with exceptional need. Therefore, we are asking all students who would like to apply for the grant funds to complete and submit the questionnaire below.

Campus administration will use the information you provide to determine your eligibility for a grant, and the amount for which you will be eligible. Jung Tao School will award funds based entirely on its discretion and all awards, communication about awards, and all personal information related to the grant is confidential and should not be shared with fellow students. This will us to help those most in need while keeping their financial situation private. Please respect these guidelines.

Active enrolled students are eligible to submit an application for grant funds. Please fill out the information neatly and completely and provide it to your campus Financial Aid Officer, Dana Roten, by emailing to finance@jungtao.edu. Please submit your application by Wednesday, March 10, 2021.

Please provide a narrative describing your specific emergency need based grant request and the amount of funds you are requesting. Narrative to be provided on a separate page, (page 2).
